HOPE Teams

Multidisciplinary HOPE Teams are a collaboration of LASAN, LAPD, LAHSA and many others. Teams operate in virtually every part of the City.

- HOPE teams are made up of:
- A LASAN Rapid Response Team
- A LAHSA Response Team
- LAPD HOPE

Since inception the HOPE Teams have:

- Assisted over 390 people with housing or shelter
- Logged over 48,000 LAPD hours
- Contacted over 7,500 homeless
- Completed over 1150 Clean-ups with sanitation
- Made 101 Felony arrests
- Made 163 Misdemeanor arrests
- Created standardized policies, training, & practices
- Built and maintained relationships with broad consortium of stakeholders

HOPE

Rapid Response Teams

The LASAN HOPE Rapid Response Teams are comprised of:

- Two Watershed Protection Environmental Compliance Officers;
- One Refuse Collection Truck Operator;
- One Maintenance Laborer; and
- One Ambassador Truck

With the LASAN component the LAPD HOPE team can:

- Remove Bulky items connected to homeless encampments;
- Take enforcement action for blocked entrance/exits; and
- Remedy ADA Violations.

HOPE Teams

A Case Study

The Problem

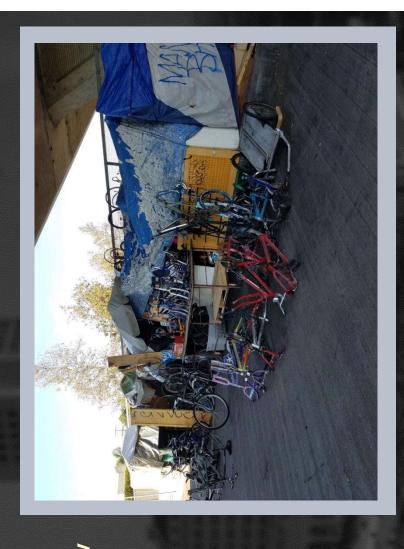

Sidewalks along the 110 freeway were largely impassible because they had become storage facilities for bulky items and improvised structures. Hazardous waste was accumulating on the median below the overpass.

HOPE Teams

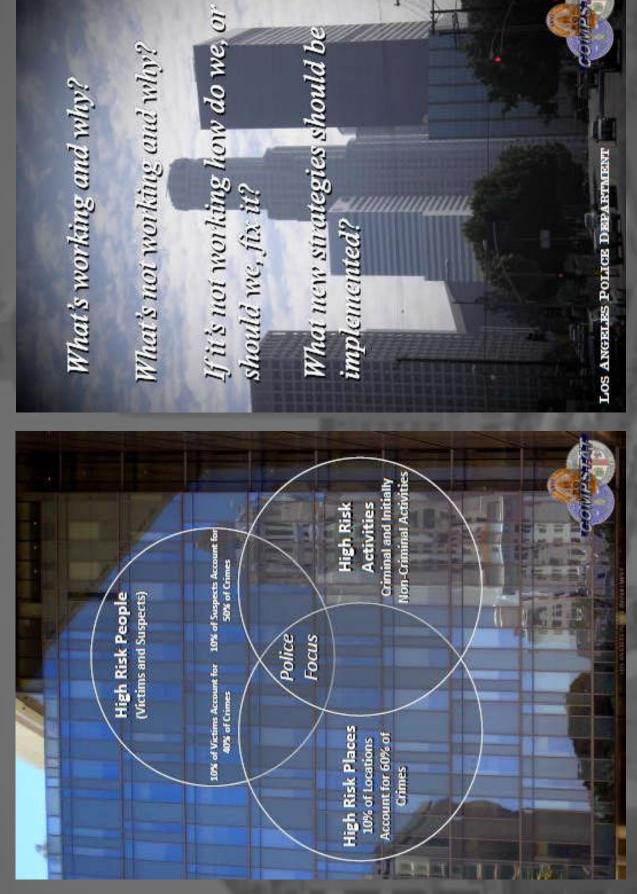

Operations-South Bureau HOPE Teams, including the Rapid Response units, removed and discarded bulky items and trash.

Conclusion

Today the sidewalks are clear and can be used for foot traffic.

Los Angeles Police Department Operations-Central Bureau

Dear:

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter. Your previous behavior in criminal related activity has recently come under the scrutiny of the LAPD. Operations-Central Bureau, the surrounding community, and other partners are working closely to stop criminal related activity in any form.

We would like to forewarn you about consequences for any continued criminal and/or violent behavior. If you continue to engage in this type of activity in the future, we will pursue charges with the City Attorney or the District Attorney to the highest level possible. We have spoken with prosecutors and received their assurance that repeat offenders will be given special consideration for enhanced prosecution and penalties.
